LOCAL NEWS.

FOURTH OF JULY. - Yesterday was the 4th of July, the 99th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, the instrument by which the thirteen original colonies declared themin former years, the recurrence of nearly a century of celebrations, and the effects of the late war having somewhat cooled the ardor of the most patriotic. Besides, the near approach of the centennial celebration to be beld on the 4th of July, 1876, at Philadelphia, and the vast and magnificent preparations which are being made to celebrate the event, make the annual anniversary of comparatively little account. Whilst these yearly celebrations are meritorious by keeping alive the memories of great events, the principles which lay at the foundation of the events themselves are, in a great measure, forgotten, and it would be well if all should recur to the great declaration and to its fearful arraignment of tyrannical oppression and of measures subversive of the common rights and liberties of individual citizens and organized States. In this city the day was dollars. celebrated by the closing of all the federal and most of the Corporation offices, the banks and some of the stores; by the shooting of guns, pistols and fire crackers, and by numerous public and private excursion parties to neighboring country resorts. The flags of all the shipping in port, and of the several steamers plying on the river, were flying, and large U. S. flags adorned the houses of the Hydraulion and Columbia Steam Fire Companies. Large numbers of people were on the streets, but most of city, will not commence until Wednesday next, them came from Washington.

THE UNION REVIVAL MEETINGS. -The attendance at the open air service last night was the largest yet. The yard seemed full of people. Mr. Howard preached from the text, "Lovest thou me?" It was a most admirable discourse, giving the evidences of a change of at the close. Many were deeply interested in off immediately. seeking salvation, and some found peace in believing. Thus closed the four weeks series of services conducted by Mr. Howard. Never was the gospel preached here with greater simplicity and fullness. Eternity alone will reveal the fruits of the seed sown. All who co-operated heartily in the work were themselves refreshed, and so encourged as to gird themselves crazy when drunk. with renewed zeal and alacrity for the Lord's service. Mr. Howard, always of feeble health, is so debilitated by the recent extremely hot weather, that he goes to-morrow to Dansville, New York, for rest and medical advice, as well as change of air. After a few weeks he hopes to return to hold a series of meetings at Leesburg, and various other points in Virginia, where he has pressing invitations to go. The prayers of many of God's people accompany him.

POLICE REPORT. - The following cases have been reported at police headquarters since Saturday afternoon, viz:

Jack Phillips, arrested on complaint of John Hannerville, was discharged and complainant made to pay the costs, and, being a stranger, ordered to leave town in thirty minutes. Emily Blue, for abusing Catharine Reynolds, tioned compelled to give security to keep the manner.'

Charles Gray, for abusing his wife, was fined and discharged. James Richards, for an assault upon Edward Hunter, was fined and sent on to court. James Short, colored, from Washington, for abusing the police, was fined and discharged. William Davis, for stealing from Jos Johnson, both colored, was dismissed for want of evidence. James T. Burnett, for an assault upon his wife, was recognized for his appearance at a future examination.

The above cases were before the Mayor. Beverly Washington, for abusing Mary Henderson, both colored, was brought before Justice Whittlesey and dismissed at complainant's

AN ANIMATED HARBOR. - Yesterday evening the river in front of the city presented an unusual appearance of activity, caused by the presence of fifty or sixty large coasters riding at anchor in the harbor and filling the channel dicate larger yields than were anticipated. from near Jones' Point far up the stream beyond the caual with a perfect forest of masts, cordage and marine equipments, whilst streaming and floating from the topmost masts were observed flags of many colors and devices, that enlivened and added brilliancy to the scene. Crowds of people flocked to witness the strange display as unexpected as it was pleasurable whilst the clear waters, stretching far away to wards the Southern horizon and forming,

"The bridal of the sea and sky." contributed to the beauty of a scene seldom realized. Later in the evening the vessels were decked with lights of variegated hues, that threw their soft radiance athwart the rippling waves, reflecting myriad rays of beauty, whilst the cadence of the sailors' voices engaged in their occupations filled the air with its peculiar

HUGH STRIDER. - The following notice of a character well known to the police of this city, is taken from the Washington Republican of this morning: "Last Saturday afternoon, near four o'clock, fficer Harlin took into custody a man named Hugh Strider, on the charge of beating Annie Murphy, in a house on 131 st., betweeen C and D streets northwest. The man is almost constantly drunk, and of fearful brutal passion. Not content with abusing the woman, he dragged her from the bed, where she had been confined by sickness, and beat her terribly. About a formight since, he had a similar belligerent attack, and, at that time, demolished nearly all the furniture in the house. je30 E. S. LEADBEATER & BRO. As the officer was taking him to the station near he resisted, but "Tip" was plucky and determined, and, although breaking his nippers in the effort, yet he succeeded in placing his prisoper beyond the bars."

RELIGIOUS SERVICES YESTERDAY. - The weather, yesterday, was delightfully cool, and though the summer hegira has commenced tolerably large congregations were present at most of the churches. Rev. Mr. Kepler preached in St. Pauls Church in the morning, and Rev. Mr. Hammon in the M. E. Church South at pight. With these exceptions the pulpits were filled by the pastors of the respective churches. It being the first Sunday in the month the Sacrament was administered in nearly all of the churches. The activities of the Young Men's Christian Association were conducted as usual. The services at the Second Presbyterian Church are noticed elsewhere in to-day's Gazette.

THE MARY WASHINGTON. - The steamer Mary Washington, yesterday afternoon, left her wharf for Gunston Hall, having on board upwards of five hundred persons. Patriotic songs were sung to the music of the band on board, the Declaration of Independence was read, and orations were delivered by Col. Daniels and Mr.

PAINTS, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Ready mixed Averill Paint and Rooffing Paint, and read at lawset states by ROBBERIES AT WEST END. - The hen house of Mr. Rose Catts, at West End, was robbed, last night, of a large number of chickens. The house of Mr. Custis, in the same suburb, was entered a night or two ago by thieves, but some of the young men of the house coming in at a selves free, equal and independent sovereign late hour, the robbers became alarmed at their The corn is doing finely, and the prospect for States. To-day it was celebrated, but not as approach and bastily decamped without carrying anything off with them.

> Excursions.-Among the largest excur sions from this city to-day were the Carlin's Springs excursion, by the friends of Messrs. Bossart and Herbner; the Beile Haven Socials, to Mount Vernou Springs, and the Galiwere accompanied with a brass band, to Culpeper Court-house.

> HARBOR THIEVES. - Three of the fleet of coasters lying in the stream off the city last night were robbed by unknown thieves. From the cabin of one a watch and eighty dollars were taken, from that of another a watch, and from that of the third a pocket-book containing ten

> NEW WHEAT. - The first new wheat offered on Change this season was a lot of 34 bushels white, quality "good," received by Washington & Bro., and was by them sold at 125e per bushel. It came from the farm of Mr. Joseph Warren, of Westmoreland county.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.-The July term of the U. S. District Court, to be held in this Culpeper. 7th inst., a letter to that effect having been rejury has been ordered for this term.
